

The library will be closed November 26th and 28th for Thanksgiving. No fines will occur doing this time.

November Newsletter

Director's Corner:

I hope everyone enjoyed our premier in October. With some patrons still wanting to stay at home and others limiting their time at the library, we started our newsletter to make sure our community was kept up-to-date on new material and programs available at the Westville-New Durham Twp Public Library. If there is something you would like to see in the newsletter, please let us know through Facebook or calling the library at 785-2015.

I also wanted to say thank you to all our patrons who took the time to answer the survey. I appreciate your feedback and ideas. I'd like to address the questions about hours, days we are open, and programs. Unfortunately, COVID has put a halt on making changes and additions. At this time, we will have to table the extra days and hours and large in-person program. We will revisit these topics in 2021. In the meantime, we will continue with our current hours and days and offer Take and Make crafts for Children and Adults.

As always, if you have any questions or ideas, please stop in or call.

Take care,

Bridget Kraemer - Director

New Sci-Fi: From the author of The Inheritance Cycle Series

During a routine survey mission on an uncolonized planet, Kira finds an alien relic. At first she's delighted, but elation turns to terror when the ancient dust around her begins to move.

As war erupts among the stars, Kira is launched into a galaxy-spanning odyssey of discovery and transformation. First contact isn't at all what she imagined, and events push her to the very limits of what it means to be human.

While Kira faces her own horrors, Earth and its colonies stand upon the brink of annihilation. Now, Kira might be humanity's greatest and final hope . . . - Goodreads

The Westville Bookworms

Disillusioned journalist Tom Langdon must get from Washington D.C. to L.A in time for Christmas. Forced to travel by train, he begins a journey of rude awakenings, thrilling adventures and holiday magic. He has no idea that the locomotives pulling him across America will actually take him into the rugged terrain of his own heart, as he rediscovers people's essential goodness and someone very special he believed he had lost.

The Christmas Train is filled with memorable characters who have packed their bags with as much wisdom as mischief ... and shows how we do get second chances to fulfill our deepest hopes and dreams, especially during this season of miracles.

New Children's Picture Book

Readers will twist and shout for this headbanging companion to the #1 New York Times best-selling We Don't Eat Our Classmates.

Penelope is a T. rex, and she's very good at it. She also likes to rock out on guitar! With the school talent show coming up, Penelope can't wait to perform for her classmates. But sharing who you are can be show-stoppingly scary, especially when it's not what people expect. Will Penelope get by with a little help from her friends? -Goodreads
