

Donations

The Library accepts donations during normal operating hours. We ask that you do not set donations outside the library when the library is not open as they may be stolen or damaged by weather.

All donations to the library are tax deductible and proof of donation is available upon request at the time of donation.

Donations may or may not go into the library collection. Those that do not become part of the collection will be set aside for the library's book sale